Colony mischief, yet the Lord appearing in our defence, made all their Attempts void. That they are not troubled with any inconveniency of the War; That the great Benefaction from Venice is an evident mark that God is pleased to establish their Settlement at Ebenezer; Tho' many Enemies there and elsewhere have endeavoured to overthrow the Colony, and the good designs of the Trustees, who have taken great Pains in establishing the Colony and making it's People happy, but if ye Effects do not answer their intentions, it is entirely owing to the Colonists faults. That the People at Savannah and other places glory in having prevailed upon the Trustees for the Introduction of Negroe Slaves into the Colony, which if true is more a matter of grief to them than joy, being convinced of the bad consequences thereof, and that the poor White people can hardly subsist where Negroe Slaves are made use of in Plantation and other works. They further signify that their People come now into the way of Plowing their Ground, which is much easier than with a Hoe, by which they save Expences in Buying Negroes, and entertaining them; That they have this year a fine Crop of Wheat, Rye, and other European Grains, and that they have a pleasant Show of Indian and other kind of that Country Grain, which gives them hopes of a plentiful Harvest, that they enjoy a good State of Health, and they hope in their next to be able to give the Trustees an Account relating to the State of the Orphan House at Savannah, and concluding with their wishes for the Societys good Designs &c.

Said that it gave the Society great pleasure to hear that the Books he received had been instrumental thro' God's Blessing in doing so much good. That as to what he recommended to the Society's Consideration whether some books setting forth the sinfulness of a Causeless Separation and otherwise encouraging Unity of Worship among Christians might not be usefully distributed. He was informed that the Society addressd nothing with Controversies but if upon looking
